

"I laughed so hard I cried" and "my face hurts from smiling so much" are some of the comments I received after our corporate holiday party with the Incredible Boris. The show was hilarious and kept us laughing the whole time.

Boris Cherniak was the perfect entertainer for our party, lots of fun, but very professional. Our volunteers were hysterical but there was nothing for anyone to feel embarrassed about in front of their co-workers. Everyone had a great time, and as the party planner I looked great for creating such a memorable event.

Thanks again Boris for an amazing evening!
